safe and secure at this time. Please enjoy!*

Our camp truck was used to pull the Foodbank's refrigerated trailer from Boise to Cascade. They covered fuel and Steve and Carol Loder drove.

SURVIVE, SUSTAIN, & SERVE

Cascade volunteers packing the boxes that were sent up via Trinity Pines connections for families to pack home their food items in.

150 households each received 50 lbs. of food. The next distribution is April 16. People lined up in the massive parking lot to secure their products.

Wagons of food to feed families in the Cascade area being moved to vehicles.

Supplies from Boise to start the hot meal delivery process from Trinity Pines Camp.

On the front line is Food Service Manager, Carla Thompson, preparing the entree for the meals.

It takes many hands and sanitation is a #1 priority.

Each container is carefully sealed and marked with instructions.

Every afternoon (M-F), the bus loads labeled meals to let recipients know the source of the food service.

The delivery system is buses provided by Cascade School District.

Meals are identified and some with special dietary needs tracked through the preparation process.

The bus is out the gate of Trinity Pines and down the road loaded with meals for Cascade families.

Meals delivered at the doorstep via the Cascade School District bus routes.

Satisfied customers having a hot meal in their home, thanks to the efforts of many. God bless each home where a meal is delivered!

Preparation begins for the next day's meal - now the count has increased to 85 and growing.
