

WHEN THE FAMILY COMES TOGETHER

Once a year, the Intermountain District family comes together -- truly as a family -- during the weekend of District Camp Meeting at the campground. Initiated by Scott and Vicky Shaw after they became District Superintendent, the weekend draws all ages from churches across our district for a weekend of fellowship, fun, food, and spiritual enrichment.

Many recall the days of outdoor Camp Meetings and dinner on the grounds. In this world of fast-paced living, highly motivated by technology and demands on life, this is one weekend to set aside and step back in time to an old-fashioned camp meeting. Many districts hold them, but Intermountain District does it first class - with morning devotions at the amphitheater and then preaching in an actual tent.

Some come and stay the entire weekend; some drive up for just the day; others drop in for just a service and a meal. We don't care, you can pay as you arrive, but we invite you to be in Cascade at Trinity Pines on August 12-14 for Camp Meeting at the Campground. There are a variety of activities planned for the weekend. Check out the website at www.tpines.org/camp-meeting to see the schedule.

Two special events will take place on Saturday. There will be two dedications for two new additions to Trinity Pines. Everyone is invited to participate in both events:

Swartzentruber Fellowship Park Dedication

Saturday, August 13, 2022 | 11:30am | RV Park

Laird/Jackson Victory Cove Cabin Dedication

Saturday, August 13, 2022 | 6:00pm | RV Park Entrance

Preaching on the weekend will be provided by General Superintendent Dr. Filimao M. and Rev. Samantha Chambo. Your life is sure to be challenged by their messages and sharing. Don't miss this great weekend when the family comes together to celebrate. Call the camp office today at 208-382-6200 and tell us you will be joining us so we can plan for your participation.

See you in Cascade,

AUGUST 2022

THE LADY WITH A PAINTBRUSH, RAG, & A SMILE

On Friday, July 29, 2022, our hearts were heavy when we learned of the passing of Carol Loder, the longtime employee and later Housekeeping Manager at Trinity Pines. Carol and her husband, Steve, came to work at Trinity Pines at various times in recent years. They were a team for sure: Carol in Housekeeping and Steve in Maintenance. You could usually find Carol with her cart filled with a variety of paints to touch up spots in her daily routine, but also with a rag for that certain smudge or spot that needed to be removed... and always with a smile. Carol touched the hearts of many with her jovial spirit. She loved her Lord and she enjoyed being of service at the camp. No details of services were available at the time of publishing this Camp Monthly. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Steve and family members as they adjust to life without Carol.

SPECIAL THANKS TO GREG GALLOWAY: Greg Galloway, Karcher Nazarene, volunteered to ride the weekly camp bus from Meridian to Cascade and from Cascade to Meridian during the weeks the bus was provided. Greg was attentive to communication with campers' guardians to let them know progress and arrival at camp and in Meridian on return trips on Fridays. We greatly appreciate Greg's willingness to fill a big responsibility and add continuity to bus supervision. Thanks, Greg.

VOLUNTEERS: While summer camp is over, guests at Trinity Pines are not decreasing. We have several weeks and weekends that we need more volunteers at the camp. We may begin to wind down some on the mowing and other tasks as the summer heat takes its toll on grass, etc. But the meals, laundry, maintenance, and housekeeping must continue into late October. If you are available to help, call the camp office at 208-382-6200 to discuss your schedule and the needs of camp. Most weekend housing is available for volunteers.

LIBERTY QUARTET CONCERT: Liberty Quartet will be holding a weekend retreat called Mountaintop Retreat on September 12-15 at Trinity Pines. They will share a concert on Wednesday evening, September 14, at 7:00pm. This is a free concert and open to the community - please help us spread the word.

CARLA RETIRING: The Board received a letter from Carla Thompson, Food Service Manager, announcing her retirement at the end of 2022. Carla has faithfully served Trinity Pines in providing wonderful and nutritious meals for several years.

Carla and her husband, Eric, plan to remain in the Cascade area. Carla's future role is under discussion, but she feels the need to step away from the demands of planning, preparing and serving three meals a day throughout the year. NOTE: If you know of someone interested in this full-time position, please have them contact Manager Tyler Luschen 208-382-6200.

NEEDS FROM CAMP: Manager Tyler Luschen provided the following list for needs at camp:

- Round 40" Archery Targets - 5 approx. $400/each
- Bows for archery range - 6 approx. $100/each
- Throwing axes/tomahawks 4 sets of 3 - $60 per set
- Queen size fitted bottom sheets - prefer white or neutral color, no design - placed on all mattresses to protect the mattress - 10-15 sheets needed

DONATIONS WILLINGLY EXCEPTED, HOWEVER...

I am often asked about donations to Trinity Pines. Our standard rule is that every donation of a physical item will be acknowledged by a letter for your tax donation purpose. We will not include a value for the donated item(s). However, the items you donate may be A) used at camp, B) donated, C) traded for another item, D) disposed of, or E) sold.

The impact is all the same to the donor: you get a tax write-off. But the camp must make the best value judgment based on the item. If you have any specific questions, do not hesitate to ask.

LOST AND FOUND: If you have items left at camp from this summer, please contact Trinity Pines by calling 208-382-6200 and they will let you know if your item might be in the lost and found box.

DEDICATIONS SCHEDULED:

On Saturday, August 13, there will be two dedications at Trinity Pines:

11:30am - Dedication of the Swartzentruber Fellowship Park in memory of Marilyn Swartzentruber. Let us know if you are joining us for lunch. This is a new children's play area and gazebo inside the RV park.

6:00pm - Dedication of the Laird/Jackson Victory Cove Cabin at the entrance of the RV Park. This will be used as a check in location for RV guests and a museum of Intermountain District Camping through the years.

NOTE: To make reservations for lunch following the 11:30am dedication or for dinner prior to the 6:00pm dedication, call the camp office at 208-382-6200.
